

McCoy Press COPYRIGHT ASSIGNMENT

Authors must submit a copyright assignment agreeing to and accepting the following conditions:

1. Author(s) refers to the principal author and any co-author(s), if multiple authorship exists.
2. The author(s) or employer(s), when the manuscript reflects a “work for hire,” grant to McCoy Press all rights protected by the copyright laws of the United States or any foreign country.
3. The author(s) or employer(s), when the manuscript reflects a “work for hire,” guarantee that the work has not been previously published, or, if previously published in part, that permission has been obtained for publication of the work in McCoy Press Journals. The author(s) or employer(s), if applicable, will submit a copy of the permission to print by McCoy Press accompanied by appropriate credit in the text of the manuscript. The author(s) or employer(s) also guarantee that the work is not being considered for publication elsewhere concurrent with its submission to McCoy Press.
4. The author(s) guarantee that the manuscript is original, accurate, and has been prepared in accordance with accepted standards of scholarly and publication ethics.

5. Artificial Intelligence and Originality Certification

The author(s) certify that any use of artificial intelligence, large language models, chatbots, image generators, or AI-assisted technologies in the preparation of this manuscript has been fully disclosed to McCoy Press. The author(s) further certify that no AI tool has been listed as an author; that all AI-assisted content has been reviewed, verified, edited, and approved by the human author(s); that all citations, quotations, data, case facts, patient information, images, and conclusions are accurate and properly attributed; and that no AI-generated or AI-assisted material infringes copyright, violates patient confidentiality, fabricates data, or misrepresents the originality of the work.

Check all that apply:

- AI Use Declaration: AI or AI-assisted technology was used only for acceptable disclosed assistance, such as improving readability, reorganizing author-written text, suggesting titles or headings, summarizing author-written text, assisting with plain-language explanations, or helping structure the manuscript. The author(s) reviewed, edited, verified, and approved the final content and accept full responsibility for the manuscript.
- Methods-Level AI Use Declaration: AI or AI-assisted technology was used as part of the research process, including but not limited to literature screening, data extraction, statistical analysis, coding, imaging analysis, clinical record review, figure generation, data visualization, qualitative analysis, or any process affecting the research methods, findings, interpretation, or conclusions. This use must be fully described in the Methods section of the manuscript.

6. McCoy Press may grant third-party permission for any given work, or portion thereof, to be copied.
7. McCoy Press may produce reprints or offprints for sale and/or free distribution, or reprint the manuscript along with other works, in any other format.

Pursuant with Public Law 94-553, effective January 1, 1978, this transfer of copyright from author(s) or employer(s) to McCoy Press is acknowledged and accepted by the undersigned for the manuscript entitled:
